History of Honey Creek Friends Monthly Meeting

In the year 1851 some 44 Quaker men, women and children started the trek from Yadkin County, North Carolina to settle in Hardin County along Honey Creek and establish their homes and a place of worship.

There were four grandparents, four couples with children, one young man seeking adventure and twenty-seven young people and children.

William and Mary Ann Reese, William and Mary Dobbins, were the grandparents, with six wagons to carry provisions and equipment, the mothers and small children.

A preparative meeting was held at the house of William Dobbins, in the fall of 1852, at which time the Honey Creek Friends Monthly Meeting was established, composed of the following named: William Dobbins, Sr. and wife, William Dobbins, Jr. and family, Levi Reese and wife, William Reese and family, William Hobson, an acknowledged Minister; James Tulburt and family, Joseph Dillon and family, Samuel Dillon and wife, James Ramsely and family. Among those who came soon after were Eleazer Andrews and family, Eli Jessup and family, and John Andrews and family. The first minister was Wm. Hobson.

The first meeting house erected by the Society was a double box building erected in 1854, southwest of New Providence. This house was subsequently burned down, and in 1859 another building was erected in its place, 32'x48'. The building was later remodelled and enlarged.

Honey Creek Meeting is considered to have been the first organized meeting for worship in Hardin County, with several meetings "set off", according to Minutes recorded.

Due to a tornado which destroyed many homes in New Providence, present minutes begin in 1860, with reference being made to having been set off from Pleasant Plain Quarterly Meeting of Friends.

quote taken directly from the first meeting after the tornado: 6th month, 12th, 1860

" A terrible tornado having passed through this country, on the 3rd instant leaving devastation and ruin in its train; destroyed the residences and goods of several of our citizens; among which were those of our friend, Eli Jessup, David Hunt and Eleazer Andrews. And Eli Jessup being Clerk of this meeting and Eleazer Andrews Recorder of certificates of Removal; consequently the Books containing the Records of our minutes and those of Certificates of Removal are lost....."

" Daniel Stack, Ezra A. Stevens, Peter Bodell and Jeremiah S. Bailey are appointed to procure suitable books; in which to record the minutes of this meeting; and Certificates of Removal....."

Minutes disclosed careful consideration of new members before admission; correction and discipline of backsliders, disowning those who failed to admit indiscretions, etc.

Minutes also reveal many meetings "set off" in the area, some living a number of years. Meetings in other states, including California, Oregon, North Dakota, Kansas and Washington State were some other meetings instituted when members of Honey Creek Friends pioneered to these states. These were held as Preparative Meetings until considered by the parent meeting to be strong enough for establishment of Monthly Meetings of their own.

The Discipline (a statement of Faith for Friends, including the Queries) was reviewed and discussed, with care taken to "deal with offenders seasonably and impartially; and endeavors are used to evince to those who will not be reclaimed the Spirit of meekness and love before judgement is placed upon them". (quote from Minutes)

A Missionary spirit was shown for the American Indian and in foreign fields; members going to serve in many areas. The Peace testimony was observed and an endeavor was made to put into practice the spirit of love and peace between nation and neighbor. Friends with concerns for visitation to other Monthly Meetings or communities were given letters of travelling minutes. These minutes were returned when the journey was completed to the satisfaction of the traveller and read into the minutes.

Ministers were not hired; the more dedicated and highly respected were expected to bring messages as lead by God. Some were named as Elders and others as Overseers.

Sunday (called First Day by Friends) was a day of worship and "Scripture School", with classes for various ages. Mid-week meeting for prayer was held regularly.

Those people wishing to be united in marriage brought their request to the Monthly Meeting, which acted on the request. After deliberation, if approval was granted, the couple repeated their own vows during the meeting for worship.

Prospective members were given consideration by responsible Friends, and taken into membership upon confession of Faith in Jesus Christ as their Lord and Master, and an expression of agreement with the Queries of Friends.

Some preparative meetings failed before 1900 and were dropped, but Honey Creek Monthly Meeting continued active and vigorous worship services.

The Statistical record book from which these records were taken is stored in a fireproof file in the minister's office in the Honey Creek-New Providence Meetinghouse at New Providence, Hardin County, Iowa.

Clergy are not named as the Friends used no paid clergy before 1900.

No Baptism dates are recorded, as Friends believe in Spiritual Baptism, and when a member requests to be admitted, he confesses his faith in God, and Jesus Christ the Saviour.

No clergy was used for marriages; the couples repeated their own vows after receiving the blessings of the monthly meeting.

The early day ministers were William Hobson and Daniel Martin. The following ministers have since served as pastors: Dr. Elias Jessup, George B. White, Nathan Baldwin, Zenas Martin, Charles Hammond, Issac N. Rich, Thomas H. Parker, John Hadley, Henry Hickman, Miles Reece, James Pickard, Milo Rees, C. John Bowles and Joseph Sopher.

The first revival meeting was conducted by Jacob Hinshaw in 1874. This resulted in 180 conversions. Many have been the blessed outpourings of the Spirit which have come, both in revival effort and regular services, as God's children have stood true to Him.

Many have gone from this meeting to other fields of labor for the Master, among whom are Zenas Martin, Alexander Martin (deceased), Eli Reece, Miles Reece, Thomas Perisho, Jesse Perisho (deceased), Clinton Morris and Waldo Reece. All of whom are Ministers or Missionaries.

Throughout these years meetings have been regularly held, and the Church still stands for Bible Christianity, having a membership of 145, with Melvin and Anna Smith as pastors.

History of New Providence Friends Meeting

In 1856 an indulged meeting was holding services in the home Of Dr. Elias Jessup in New Providence. In 1857 a Preparative Meeting was set up under Honey Creek Monthly Meeting.

The next year a frame meeting house was built at the N. E. intersection of East Main and Apple Streets at a cost of $350.00. In 1860 when the tornado struck New Providence the building was damaged by the storm but was repaired and continued in use until 1869 when it was sold and converted into a residence. It still remains on the original location and is the main part of a modern home.

In 1869 a two story brick building was erected at a cost of $8000.00 at the corner of Cherry and Pear Streets. The upper room was assigned to the Meeting and the lower room to the Academy students. For ten years the long winding stairs were climbed by old and young to attend service. In 1879, by an agreement with the school management, the meeting places of the school and the Meeting were reversed.

According to the custom of Friends there was no pastoral system, but in every meeting there were both men and women who qualified as spiritual leaders. Among those persons were John S. Bond, Dr. Eli Jessup, David Hunt, Mary E. Andrews, Dr. Elias Jessup, and Seneca Wildman. With the progress of times it became evident that a resident pastor, giving full time to the work, would best meet the needs of the Meeting. Dr. Elias Jessup became the first salaried pastor in 1884. Since that date New Providence has not been without a salaried pastor except for very short periods.

Very early in the New Providence Meeting singing was used in worship and hymn books were provided. The first use of a musical instrument was during a series of evangelistic meetings conducted by John Pennington when a reed organ was borrowed, at the minister's request, and played by Jessie Tansey.

At that time the organ was becoming very popular in the homes in the community and there was a growing sense of its usefulness in the meeting. L. Maria Dean (1892-97) was the pastor at the time a reed organ was purchased and placed in the Meeting House to be used in Sunday School, Young People's meetings and special programs. On Sixth Month 29, 1895, a minute specifies "the organ be used in regular services and Dora Hadley be recognized as organist and Mary Fidgeon as leader in singing."

For many years Honey Creek and New Providence were one Monthly Meeting holding sessions first at Honey Creek and then alternating between the two.

Repeated applications were made to the Quarterly Meeting for the establishment of a Monthly Meeting at New Providence but for various reasons the request was denied until 1892.

At the Quarterly Meeting held First Month 7, 1893, at Honey Creek a committee consisting of Zenas L. Martin, Henry M. Hadley, Susie J. Martin, Mary Jane Mendenhall, Keziah Lundy, Frank Taylor, David Fidgeon, Rachel Greene, Ezra Hinshaw and Emma Pyle was appointed to assist in establishing the Monthly Meeting under the pastorate of L. Maria Dean.

The same year a project for constructing a new Meeting House was presented but was rejected by the meeting. In 1899 the Brick Academy building which had been used for meetings was condemned and torn down. The same year a new Meeting House, with furnace and gas lights, was constructed on land donated by John Branson just north of the Academy. This building was used until December 6, 1906 when it was destroyed by fire.
